

Myrtle Consulting Group Ranked as the 17th Fastest-Growing Firm by *Consulting Magazine

HOUSTON, November 5, 2018 – Myrtle Consulting Group, a leading operations consultancy driving operational transformation, announced today that it has been recognized as one of 2018's fastest-growing consulting firms by Consulting magazine. Myrtle ranked 17th on the annual global ranking, which celebrates the industry's top 65 movers and shakers based on three-year revenue growth. With a revenue growth rate of 226 percent Myrtle was also the fastest-growing Texas-based company on the list.

"Myrtle's growth is a direct reflection of our team and we wouldn't be on this list or where we are today without their hard work and dedication," said Edwin Bosso, Myrtle founder and CEO. "We're honored to be recognized by Consulting magazine as a rapidly growing firm and look forward to even greater success as we move into 2019."

Myrtle has been driving operational transformation in partnership with global manufacturing organizations since 2012 and has built a team with decades of experience in reducing costs, increasing yield, improving asset utilization and boosting labor productivity. In addition to this recognition as one of the world's fastest-growing firms, Myrtle was also recognized for the third consecutive year as one of the fastest-growing companies in America by Inc. magazine.

"With this type of growth, there's absolutely no doubt these 65 consulting firms are shaking up the industry from the bottom up—with growth comes opportunities—and they are the profession's Fastest Growing Firms for 2018," said Joseph Kornik, publisher and editor-in-chief of Consulting magazine. "This recognition and award—Consulting's Fastest Growing Firms—is aimed squarely at these up-and-coming firms that all too often fly below the radar because they're not the biggest or the best-known firms. We want to shine a light on these firms because they are the future of consulting."
