

Myrtle Case Study

Client

One of North America's Largest Diversified Resource Companies
$2B in revenue

Solutions

Demand Planning Process
Inventory Management
Performance Management

 CHALLENGE	 APPROACH	 RESULT
<ul style="list-style-type: none">▶ Materials Management as key opportunity to improve the support of Mine and Mill Maintenance and Operations▶ Lack of integration with Maintenance Planning and Scheduling causing frequent stock outs▶ Management System that did not provide adequate information for decision making	<ul style="list-style-type: none">▶ A complete and timely demand planning process;▶ An inventory management process defining levels and types of inventory;▶ A sourcing and procurement process that provides a current status to maintenance;▶ Materials issue integrated with scheduling returns and rebuilds process;▶ And management KPI's and Reporting Systems.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">▶ Integration with Maintenance planning▶ Improved Maintenance Processes▶ Accurate status of the availability, location and quantity of material▶ Accurate and timely tracking of all returns and rebuilds

"The right decisions being made with the right information at the right time that drive timely planning execution and continuous improvement plans."